

Across the Waters - Deep Listening Circle #3

Weaving together Art, Science, Culture and Community

Saturday 9th November 2024 1.00pm – 3.30pm

Berninneit, Phillip Island - Millowl 91-97 Thompson Ave, Cowes

Supported by Bass Coast Shire Council

A Creative Message Exchange and celebration of story, song, poetry, art, dance and conservation with Aunty Sonia Weston, Mal Webb, Kylie Morigan, Jo Lane, Kate Gorringer-Smith and Carmel Wallace

Jo Lane's Listening Stones

You are invited to participate in Phillip Island Conservation Society's Eco Arts project, Across the Waters, which has a focus on the protection of Western Port Bay (Warn Marin), the Ramsar site within it and the Woodlands adjoining it. The project is bringing together community members around the Bay to promote ecological awareness and action through Eco Arts collaborations.

- | | |
|------------------------------------|-------------------------------------------------------------|
| 1) Deep Listening Circle #1 | First Nation Perspectives on Sea Country |
| Coronet Bay Hall | Saturday 14 th September 2024 1.30pm – 3.30pm |
| 2) Deep Listening Circle #2 | Creative Ways of Knowing |
| Wonthaggi ArtSpace | Saturday 12 th October 2024 1.00pm – 3.00pm |
| 3) Deep Listening Circle #3 | Weaving together Art, Science, Culture and Community |
| Berninneit, Cowes | Saturday 9 th November 2024 1.00pm – 3.30pm |

Participants in the Deep Listening Circles will be invited to celebrate Western Port Bay (Warn Marin) as a place of connection between people, land, rivers, sky and the wider Living World. Activities in the Circles will incorporate multiple ways of knowing and will showcase environmental artworks, images, poetic text and music developed by members of the community around the Bay. You are warmly welcome.

To register for a Deep Listening Circle, contact Across the Waters Project Coordinator
Dr Laura Brearley laura.brearley@tlc21.com.au

More information about the Across the Waters project is available at <https://picsvictoria.org.au/events/>

*We honour the beautiful Boonwurrung/Bunurong Country on which this project is taking place.
We respect and thank the Traditional Custodians who have been caring for this Country and its precious waterways for thousands of years.*